3. MAGID is to be given appropriate credit for originating the idea of the DDI attitudinal survey, when it is issued. MAGID has expressed the desire to participate actively in the design and approval of the questionnaires. To this end, a luncheon with Mr. Proctor to discuss the draft of the survey will be requested.

4. It was suggested that the DDI bulletin board include unclassified publications with DDI authors identified, giving individual analysts credit for their work, as well as MAGID minutes of meetings, lists of current and future projects, a list of MAGID members, and the request that interested DDI personnel contact MAGID members with ideas and suggestions.

5. It was decided that MAGID members would look into their offices' [ ] with a view to a MAGID paper on the subject.

6. [ ] is drafting a short paper on courses taken by new DDI personnel, and their relevance to individual offices.

STAT
7. [ ] invited MAGID to come to IAS, perhaps hold a meeting there, and become acquainted with IAS work and surroundings.

STAT
8. [ ] questioned whether the offices' Personnel Development Plans would be made available to the office personnel. If an individual were interested in changing to another office, would he be able to see that office's Plan, to see what he could expect, working there? It was noted that IAS is making the Plan available to its personnel.

STAT 9. The agenda for the 17 April Big MAG 'roundtable' was announced. [ ] is to be the MAGID spokesman.

STAT 10. [ ] is taking the 18 April luncheon with Mr. Proctor; [ ] is scheduled for 20 June.

STAT 11. [ ] noted that the subject of a Clerical MAG was brought up at her 21 March luncheon with Mr. Proctor, and he seemed quite receptive to the idea. MAGID supports the formation of a Clerical MAG.

STAT 12. [ ] distributed the draft paper on rotational assignments. Suggestions, comments, etc. are to be given to her by 2 April.

13. The next meeting is Wednesday, 9 April, in Room 4 F 31, Hqs.
